

TO PARADE THURSDAY TO MINSTREL

In Tunic and Fox, Band and "De Luxe" Cast to Throng Streets.

The grotto dress, headed by a 15-piece uniformed band and bagpipers, led the parade of Amoo will parade the streets of Rock Island next Thursday noon in the biggest minstrel parade ever staged in the triangle to celebrate the opening day of the "De Luxe Minstrels," the in-tertainment of which will be staged at the Illinois theatre that evening and which will also be staged on Friday and Saturday

Under the regulation lineup of the minstrels, which include the 75 Amoo men who compose the chorus of the De Luxe show, the clowns and comedy troupe will take a big place in the line.

In gay tunic and fox over fourteen grottoes will follow the band and a host of members of the orchestra, expected to number nearly a hundred, in citizen clothes, will be the lengthy rear guard.
Parade of Parade W. L. Franka, conducted by Monarch J. W. Johnson to marshal the procession, has been given unlimited command of the resources of the grotto to make the parade the best and biggest of the kind ever staged here.

MATHEVILLE

(Special Correspondence.)
Mrs. Charles Rose has returned from Chicago after a few days visit. Her mother-in-law returned home with her and will make her home here this winter.
Mrs. Lisle Keegan of Monmouth was a recent visitor at the Clyde Lewson home.

The Rebecca served refreshments at their hall Tuesday evening.
The small son of Mr. and Mrs.
McVetty is ill with diphtheria.
A number of the members of the I. O. O. F. lodge went to Aledo Monday evening where the third degree was conferred on several Matheville young men.

Jack Hallas has rented the building formerly occupied by the Farmer's bank and will move his barber shop there.

A special train went through here Sunday morning carrying the officials and receivers of the Rock Island Southern.

TO LEAD AMOO MINSTREL PARADE

Always playing a prominent part in grotto and Minstrel functions, the Amoo band of 50 pieces is to lead the minstrel parade in Rock Island Thursday noon and will also take a feature part in the three performances of the "De Luxe Minstrels" of the grotto at the Illinois theatre, Rock Island, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

The Amoo band has been playing together for two years, and although boasting but few instruments during the early months of its life, it has experienced a steady growth in numbers as well as popularity and now has over half a hundred members on its roster.
At the national convlave at Ker-sas City last June the Amoo men were awarded third place in the competitive band event and proved to be the favorite of the convlave in street concerts and open air recitals.

Jacob G. Moody, prophet of Zal grotto, Moline, and director of the band, has had much experience as the leader of musical organisations, having formerly been director of the Second Infantry band of Washington, D. C. Besides this official capacity as leader of one of the most noted bands of the national capital, Moody has been head of a number of ship's bands in the United States navy, and the snap of the military and naval style can readily be discerned in the Amoo band music.

BURGESS

(Special Correspondence.)
Mrs. A. V. Harriott was a shopper in Aledo Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sharer, Mrs.
George Pease and Miss Mona Palmer motored to Monmouth Saturday, where they spent the day shopping.

George Greenwood of Viola visited several days last week in Burgess at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. L. Frost.

Mrs. J. E. Person and Mrs. W.
N. Hunter were shoppers in Aledo Saturday.

Mrs. W. N. Hunter and son Billy returned home after a two weeks' visit with LaHarpe relatives.
Mrs. J. B. Morford and Mrs. Orissa Walters were callers in Aledo Friday.

W. A. and Fred McLaughlin were business callers in Aledo Thursday.

Mrs. Lillie Morford and son Lonnie were in Aledo shopping Thursday.

Lawrence Whan was a caller in Saxton Friday evening.

La Vera Morgan and J. L. Hamilton returned home the last of the week from Kansas City, where they each purchased a fine bunch of feeding cattle.

F. D. Greenwood has been picking corn the last week at the W.
A. Laughhead farm.

The box sociable which was held at the school house Friday evening was a success in every way. A fair sized crowd was in attendance.

Miss Margaret Lafferty, who is employed in Monmouth, spent the week-end at the home of her mother in Burgess.

Miss Gladys Lafferty is home after a several months' stay in Moline, where she has been employed.

Lester, J. F. Rush, and S. S. Morgan and son George were in Aledo Saturday, where they attended the hog sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hamilton and family of near Aledo visited Sunday at the La Vera Morgan home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alliman visited Sunday with relatives in the Sunbeam neighborhood.

Miss Helen Harriott very pleasantly entertained the members of the Adelphi Sunday school class and a number of other members of the local Sunday school, at her home Saturday evening. The time was spent playing games, and during the evening a dainty lunch was served to the guests by the mother of the hostess, Mrs. A. V. Harriott.

Vern and Harold Morgan were business callers in Monmouth on Thursday.

Mrs. B. F. Past and a party of friends of Aledo were callers in the Burgess neighborhood Friday afternoon.

The big membership contest being conducted in the local Sunday school is becoming very popular and is attracting a number of new members into our midst. It was reported last week that a large number would likely be suspended from the active membership list owing to the missing of three Sundays in succession, but we are glad to report that only 10 met this fate, and of course their names will be added again as soon as they return to the class. Five new members were added Sunday, causing the membership to be lowered only five. A total of 36 members in good standing are now enrolled.

The adult class now leads with 637 points, while the Adelphi class hold a close second with 662. Young married people are third with 629.

and Mrs. Gladson's class fourth with 501.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hall and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cabeen of Aledo were callers in Burgess Friday evening.
